

HUMANITARIAN HOST COMMITTEE

APRIL 26, 2024 | 5:30 PM-9:00 PM
UNE INNOVATION HALL | PORTLAND, ME

Please consider becoming a Host Committee member for Spurwink's 2024 Humanitarian Awards as we honor Angela Stone, Founder of Maine Needs, as our Humanitarian and USI with our Corporate Care Award. As a Host Committee member, you show your dedication to over 8,300 people of all ages, abilities, and backgrounds, and their families, who face behavioral health challenges in Maine. We look forward to celebrating with you at a new location, UNE Innovation Hall, and highlighting Spurwink's Special Education Day Treatment Programs.

Luminary Host Committee: $1,000

- Eight (8) tickets to attend the Humanitarian Awards
- Opportunity to place a personal message or ¼ screen advertisement in the event's slideshow
- Top tier recognition on the invitation, event webpage, and recognition on social media and during the event
- 16 drink tickets (two tickets per person)
- Parking access for two cars

Torchbearer Host Committee: $300

- Two (2) tickets to attend the Humanitarian Awards
- Recognition on the invitation, event webpage, and recognition on social media and during the event
- Four (4) drink tickets (two tickets per person)
- Parking access for one car

FMI or to sign up, contact:

Emily Williams, Director of Development
ewilliams@spurwink.org | 207.871.1211 x2106

2024 HUMANITARIAN

APRIL 26, 2024 | 5:30 PM-8:30 PM
UNE INNOVATION HALL | PORTLAND, ME

Honoring

Angela Stone
Founder, Maine Needs
Humanitarian Award

USI
Corporate Care Award

